CHALLENGES/RECONSIDERATION - Pg. 2

2. A committee shall be formed to review the material. The committee shall be selected by the building principal and shall include staff members who are familiar with the material in question. The committee shall include the library department chairperson, the librarian, and an educator from a discipline unrelated to the material. The building principal will chair the committee.
3. Each member of the committee shall read and review the challenged material and the submitted Citizen's Request for Review of Materials form.
4. The committee shall meet within thirty-five (35) working days of the request and shall:
 - a. Determine the professional acceptance by reading critical reviews of the resource.
 - b. Weigh values and faults and form opinions on the material as a whole rather than on a passages or sections taken out of context.
 - c. Discuss the challenged material(s) in the context of the educational program and curricular goals.
 - d. Discuss the challenged material(s) with the individual objector when appropriate.
 - e. Make recommendations to retain, restrict or remove the materials from the library.
5. The principal shall determine whether the material in question shall remain in use during the committee review process.
6. The citizen's written request, together with the recommendation of the committee to retain the material, restrict its use, or remove it from the library shall be submitted to the Superintendent or designee for review.
 - a. If the Superintendent or designee concurs in the recommendation of the committee, s/he shall notify the committee and the objector of his/her decision in writing.
 - b. If the Superintendent or designee questions the recommendation of the committee, s/he shall reconvene the committee for further discussion. In the event that agreement is not reached, the Superintendent or designee shall determine the disposition of the material and shall notify the committee and the citizen of his/her decision in writing.

109.2. LIBRARY/CLASSROOM MATERIALS –
CHALLENGES/RECONSIDERATION - Pg. 3

- c. Should the objector disagree with the disposition of the material as determined by the Superintendent or designee, the citizen may appeal to the Board for reconsideration.
 - d. Before a vote is taken by the Board in an appeal beyond the Superintendent's decision, each member of the Board shall read the challenged material in its entirety.
 - e. The decision of the Board shall be final.
7. The Superintendent shall determine whether the material in question shall remain in use during the Board review process.
