Title: Crucible, The

Author: Arthur Miller

Publisher: Penguin (Non-Classics Department)

Grade Level of Intended Use: 10

Plot Summary: This classic play examines the witch-hunts and the trials in seventeenth century Salem, Massachusetts. Based on historical people and real events, Miller's drama is a searing portrait of a community engulfed in hysteria. In the rigid theocracy of Salem, rumors that women are practicing witchcraft rock the town's most basic fears and suspicions; and when a young girl accuses Elizabeth Proctor of being a witch, self-righteous church leaders and townspeople insist she is brought to trial. The ruthlessness of the prosecutors and the eagerness of neighbor testifying against neighbor show the destructive power of socially sanctioned violence. The Crucible reflects the anti-communist hysteria inspired by Senator Joseph McCarthy's "witch-hunts" in the United States.

Title: Schindler's List

Author: Thomas Keneally

Publisher: Touchstone

Grade Level of Intended Use: 10 Honors

Plot Summary: Schindler's List is a remarkable piece based on the true story of German industrialist and war profiteer, Oskar Schindler, who, confronted with the horror of the extermination camps, gambled his life and fortune to rescue 1,300 Jews from the gas chambers. Working with the actual testimony of Schindler's Jews, Thomas Keneally artfully depicts the courage and shrewdness of an unlikely savior, a man who is a flawed mixture of hedonism and decency and who, in the presence of unutterable evil, transcends the limits of his own humanity. As would any historical fiction about the events of what could be considered the darkest hour of the 20th century—possibly of all humanity, Schindler's List contains descriptions of violence and the deaths of almost six million Jews.
