Use the following outline as a guide for your interview:

The TITLE of my project is ______________________________________

____________________________________________

The PURPOSE of my project was to _______________________________

______________________________________________________________

*The HYPOTHESIS formed was _________________________________

______________________________________________________________

The PROCEDURE I used was _________________________________

______________________________________________________________

*I repeated this procedure _________ times to make certain that my results were valid.

*The RESULTS were _________________________________

______________________________________________________________

The CONCLUSION I reached was ________________________________

______________________________________________________________

If I were to do this investigation again, I would change or add ______________________

______________________________________________________________

* for EXPERIMENTAL projects only